MILITARY MUSEUMS: MANAGEMENT TECHNIQUES, SEMINAR MAR. 5 & 6

Last minute details are being finalized by the Museum and Association members in preparation for the Military Museum Seminar which we are hosting in the Armoury on March 5 and 6, 1982.

Lee Murray, Chief Curator, Canadian War Museum, Ottawa, will be the guest speaker on the evening of March 5th, and Dan Gallacher, Curator, Modern History Division, B.C. Provincial Museum, Victoria, Bob Clapp, Registrar, 5th(B.C.) Regiment(RCA) Museum and Archives, along with Gregory Evans, Training Co-ordinator, B.C. Provincial Museum, will all be resource people contributing to the two day program.

If the Groundsheet reaches you in time, applications are still being accepted on or before February 26th by phoning Gregory Evans, Victoria (387-5593) or Freda Hogg, Steering Committee, at 522-6793.

THE MUSEUM COMMITTEE:

Walter Hogg has recently been appointed Chairman, Museum Committee, by Nelson Scott, Association President. Already busy with plans for the up-coming Military Museum Seminar, new open hours, and other priorities, Museum Committee members are anticipating an active year ahead.

Several of the above members are filling dual roles in their positions and on sub-committees. Of course, situations may change as our need arises, but already we have accomplished much since January, and are more knowledgeable about the operation of YOUR Museum.

'Rostering' to man the Museum open hours is being handled by Dick Shannon. WE NEED YOUR HELP in taking a turn on Museum duty, so Dick would appreciate a call as to times you could attend. Phone Dick Shannon at 874-5843, or Ian Douglas at 522-3415, or Walter Hogg at 522-6793.

Let us know when we might count on seeing you. If you can't attend, do phone the above persons in any case as we would very much like to hear any ideas or comments you might have with respect to the operation or future of YUOR very fine Museum.

MEMORABILIA AND ARTIFACTS NEEDED * PLEASE!

Ian and Dick urge you all to search once more for any memorabilia, papers, photographs, etc. that you might have stored away in your homes. As the years pass, many of these items which you may still have and which would be of inestimable value to our Museum, are becoming lost, mislaid, - or thrown out.

It would be a great service to the Museum if you would take one last look for any mementos pertaining to our family of Regiments.

kindest regards to you all - and keep well.

PRESIDENT'S COMMENTS

There has been a torrent of words these last few months from which has evolved a new Museum committee structure, complete with a new chairman, and formalized operational instructions under the heading of "Rules and Regulations" which replace the former Bylaws and Constitution. No Committee of this Association may have bylaws and a constitution of its own - consequently the change in both name and operational context, though there was not too much of the latter.

The changes made were the direct result of a study and deliberations of a special Committee, over a period of three months. Headed by Vice-President Doug Glenn, the committee was made up of Bert Hoskins, Vern Ardagh, Ian Douglas, Walter Hogg, and an assist from Glen Gates as needed. Even this fine body of men realized their own short-comings, consequently their first order of buisness was to appoint Frieda Hogg as their secretary,

I was not privy to their discussions, but from the comments heard from various sources, their meetings were masterpieces of discussion - arbitration - conclusion. The results achieved make a liar out of Milton Berle, of TV and Radio fame, who remarked that "a committee is a group that takes minutes and wastes hours".

Based on the surmise that "success is a journey, not a destination", I have requested this special committee to continue their good work and come up with new heights of achievement for the future of our Museum.

We all owe a debt of gratitude to Mike Steede, Gerry Churley, and in particular, to Doreen Cull for their effort and contributions in the past. How does one express appreciation for their doing the job, as they saw it, except in the insufficient manner of thank you.

This issue of the Groundsheet is rather formal, as it was the opinion of your Executive that everyone should be in possession of a copy of the Association's Bylaws and Constitution. You will also note that there are two (at the time of writing) suggested amendments - to amend, or cause to amend, significant sections. These become the responsibility of those who attend the annual General Meeting.

Not everyone can attend this Meeting, because of distance, etc., but there are over 200 members within less than a hour's drive of the Armoury. It would be nice... No! Most gratifying to see a good turn-out for a change.

RELEASE of CLASSIFIED(?)
INFORMATION

Since the 30-year moratorium on information dealing with various aspects of the War years has now expired, it can be revealed, in answer to several enquiries on the subject, just who was the author of the personal Diary that ran serially in the Groundsheet.

As you will have noticed, (if you took time to read it) it was mostly complaints (normal) and vague as to units, dates, places, etc. This was in case it fell into enemy hands, the author being a serious, well-doctrinated soldier.

If it recalled a few old memories - good. That's what it was written for. And the author was he who now has achieved the literary rank of being your Editor.

Ultimate ambition?

*We swim like fish
In our submarines;
Fly like birds
Over earthbound scenes.*

*We walk on the moon,
But my hope lies in when
We shall walk
On earth like MEN!*

- Ruth M. Walsh

Last year I wrote a personal letter to these 200 with surprisingly good results. Hopefully this year will be better. Apathy, indifference, and undernourishment are causes for extinction, so turn out and challenge your Executive and Committee chairmen with constructive criticism. We are not 'stars', we're just part of a team.

Please don't get confused with the dates being published for our Melfa Dinner. Both the 1982(May 22) and 1983(May 21) dates have been shown, and there have been several phone calls pointing out a supposed error, where closer inspection would have shown that the dates were for different years. You'll notice also that Ian Douglas has a notice in this issue concerning Golf dates and times for '82 and '83.

At a Museum meeting in January, Glen Gates(Gus to his friends) made a presentation on behalf of the late Ted Eakins. We are now the proud owners of Ted's personal medals and his magnificent collection of miniatures of all Canadian Service Awards and Decorations, all 43 being complete with miniature medal and ribbon, suitably mounted and framed. The Association acknowledged the gift and promptly loaned them to the Museum for care, custody and display.

A further gift was included in Ted's will; he was generous to his Association to the tune of ten thousand dollars. In accordance with his expressed wishes, these funds will be used to assure, as best they can, the continued memory of the Regiment, through the Museum. We had prior knowledge of these funds coming so steps were taken to assure everything was in place for the control of investment and spending when the funds were actually made available. My thanks to Basil Morgan and his special Committee for the recommendations to the Executive. 'There are a handful of people whom money won't spoil, and I like to think that we can count ourselves among them'. As we all grow older, Ted has given us a message to assure that our Museum, our memorial to the Regiment, will not falter.

The annual financial statements for both the Museum and the Association are before the audit committee. We have come through the year very well. All of us should be thankful to those who work on Budget committees, to those who control our finances, and to an Executive who work well within the guidelines established. We all do our part; those who pay dues, those who contribute, those who work with the Draw. I am secure in my own knowledge and belief that you have received full value for what you have done. No one within the framework of our administration receives any remuneration or honourarium of any kind. This was my stated policy when I took office and it has been firmly adhered to.

As to the future, only the Nominating Committee knows. They have been given special instructions to come up with officers and an 8-man executive who are prepared and willing to devote 12 months of their time and effort to further the aims and objects of our Association. What are these? Just turn your membership card over.

See you at the General Meeting and Melfa '82. And for everyone: please start making your plans for Melfa '83.

REVERSE PSYCHOLOGY

An attractive young woman was sitting alone at a bar. "Excuse me, may I buy you a drink?" asked a young man. "To a motel?" she yelled. "No, no. You misunderstood. I just asked if I could buy you a drink." "You're asking me to drive with you to a motel?" she screamed excitedly. Completely bewildered, the young man withdrew to a corner. Everybody stared at him indignantly.

A little later, the young woman came to his table. "I'm sorry to have created a scene," she said, "But I am a psychology student studying human behavior in unexpected situations." The young man looked at her and shouted for all to hear, "What? A hundred dollars?"

PREAMBLE

The Constitution of the Association(Society) gives us a name and a purpose.

Due to the apparent lack of success of the scholarships and awards projects, the vitality and indeed the purpose for the Society's existence rests with the Groundsheet and the Museum. Of the two only the Museum can hope to preserve the continuity of the history of the Regiment and its antecedents, consequently this must be a stated and written aim of the Society.

NOTICE OF MOTION

Therefore it is moved or caused to be moved that Para.2 of the Constitution be amended by adding the following sentence at the end of the paragraph:

"The further purpose of the Society is to accept, as a vital responsibility, the continuation of the Museum of The Royal Westminster Regiment and The Royal Westminster Regiment Association as long as it exists and operates under the rules and regulations as approved by the Association(Society).

NOTICE OF MOTION

TO AMEND Section 6, Part 2, of the Constitution & Bylaws

The above to be amended by the following:

Whereas all members of the Association who served in World War II are at or nearing life membership age, and
Whereas those members of the Regiment presently serving do receive remuneration for their services, and
Whereas it is not the intention of the Society to discriminate between those currently serving with the Regiment and those who were so honoured in the past
Whereas we honour and respect those who served in the First world war;

Therefore it is moved or caused to be moved, that section 6 Part 2 of the Bylaws read:

The annual dues of the Society for its members shall be as follows:

- A: General membership, including all members save and except those who served in the First World War,
Annual dues....$5.00
B: Members who served in First World War...No charge

NOTICE OF MOTION
TO AMEND Section 18(4), Part 7 of the Constitution & Bylaws

The above to be amended as follows:
Whereas the present wording places an unfair responsibility on the President, and
Whereas it would allow for a committee to comprise members of a single purpose and not a complete cross-section of opinion, and
Whereas it is deemed to be the responsibility, not only of the President but of his elected executive members, to review committees;
Therefore it is moved or caused to be moved that Section 18(4), Part 7 be amended to read as follows:

The President shall appoint the chairman of all standing committees, who will appoint their own committee members subject only to the approval of the Executive of the Society.
